Teacher Incentive Policy

Preamble

With the advent of research identifying teacher quality as a central determinant of student outcomes, programmes have been created to incentivize teacher retention, and performance. Economic incentives are premised on the assumption that additional compensation can induce teachers to accept jobs they may otherwise not be inclined to do. These policies also allow teachers to earn more money for effective service, even if they cannot, for a variety of reasons, earn a pay increase.

Objectives

The primary objective of the proposed incentive scheme is to motivate the faculty members/staffs and all other researchers of various departments of the JVBI to do quality research, consultancy and other research-related activities. The University aims to improve overall research performance and promote research activities undertaken by various departments/ faculty members and students. The Incentive Scheme (IS) provides the means to assist with research activities or reward staff for successful publication or presentation of research outputs.

The Incentive Scheme : Salient Features

- All the faculty members and staffs are being encouraged to do research and apply for research grants / seed money from funding agencies or industries relevant to their field of interest.
- Incentives shall be granted to the faculty members who received research grants from various funding agencies.
- Monetary incentives will be granted as rewards for the faculties / staffs who receive Sponsored Research / Consultancy / MoU projects.
- University will consider seed money for initiating research after proper evaluation of project proposal submitted by a faculty/staff.

- The university administration may also consider seed money for the research projects, if the proof of concept is established by the faculty.
- Faculty members are encouraged to publish books, book chapters, research papers etc. through different monetary and non-monetary schemes offered by the University.
- Faculty members are encouraged to attend invitation for keynote speaker/ plenary lectures or presentation of paper in conference / workshop / seminar relevant to their field of research in India or Abroad.
- Faculty members shall be permitted to attend conference / workshop relevant to their field of research in India or Abroad with on duty leave with registration fee being reimbursed by the university.
- Partial financial support only, may be considered for the faculty members invited for keynote speaker / plenary lecture in conference / seminar, etc. if financial support is not provided by the organizers or any other funding agencies. Faculty members shall apply for travel grant to the funding agencies.
- An increment benefit will be provided to faculty / staff members for their contribution in research work.
- For his / her consultancy project, if the faculty member would like to keep a portion of his consultancy, testing fee with the University for other purposes, then he is permitted to deposit it in the Professional Development Fund of the Institute.
