

ADMINISTRATION OF SCHOLARSHIPS Policy

Approved by the Board of Management on 26.07.2014

Jain Vishva Bharti Institute (Deemed University), Ladnun

I. PURPOSE

This Policy has been designed to help various administrative and academic departments of the JVBI to determine the most effective method of administering scholarships, stipends and awards so as to ensure full compliance with the University's obligations with respect to promote higher education amongst the students who do not have adequate financial resources.

Administration of scholarships, stipends and awards are subject to other University policies, as well as, state and central laws and regulations. This Policy shall be implemented in a manner consistent with all such policies, laws and regulations, as those may be amended from time to time. The rules and administrative processes set forth in this Policy are subject to change and will be updated as needed to reflect such amendments.

II. SCOPE

The Policy applies to Scholarships, Stipends and awards to all Students enrolled at the University, especially those students, who are not financially well off/prefer to opt non-conventional academic programmes, which have been designed in tune with the institutional objectives/special categories of students; very specifically the samanyes/ sadhwees/ samans/sadhus/ascetics etc. .

III. DEFINITIONS

- "Aid" means funds awarded to a Student from external funding sources or with University internal funds.
- "Cost of Attendance Remission" means funds awarded to a Student that may be used to pay for University charges, including tuition, on-campus room and board, and/or to defray the cost of University assessed fees. The source of the funds for the remission can include, without limitation, restricted or unrestricted departmental or grant funds.

- "Fellowship" The University makes no distinction between "Fellowships" and Scholarships.
- "Grants" The University makes no distinction between "Grants" and Scholarships.
- "Prize" means an item or transfer (monetary or otherwise) given to a Student in recognition of success in an organized competition that is not required as a part of the curriculum.
- "Reimbursable Expense Award" means funds provided to a Student to defray the cost of travel to, or participation in, an academic conference or other related activity. To qualify as a Reimbursable Expense Award, the Student recipient must provide the department providing the funds with receipts for all reimbursable expenses. Such expenses must equal or exceed the amount of the award.
- "Scholarship" means funds awarded to Students with the intent to support the educational expenses of the recipient. Scholarships include funds awarded for tuition, fees, room, board, travel related to educational opportunities (other than Reimbursable Expense Awards), books and other educational expenses. An item or transfer (monetary or otherwise) given to a student in recognition of success in an organized competition that is a required part of the curriculum will be treated as a Scholarship. Scholarships may be either merit or need-based.
- "Stipend" means money paid by the University to a Student for services rendered to the University or to a third party (e.g., a co-op employer or internship placement), which includes the following:
 - Research for a member of the faculty whether or not equivalent research is a requirement of all candidates for the degree in the Student's particular program (e.g. Graduate Research Assistant, Graduate Research Fellow).
 - Teaching student classes under the direction of a member of the faculty (e.g. Graduate Teaching Assistant)
 - Research training techniques for work under a federally sponsored grant.
 - Any other service provided by the Student to the University or to a third party (e.g. Graduate Assistant). National Research Service Awards (e.g. N.R.S.A. Fellows) paid to post-doctoral students will be processed through the Human Resources and Payroll Departments. N.S.R.A. awards to registered students will be processed through the Financial Aid Office.
- "Student" means an individual who, at either the undergraduate, graduate or professional level, is enrolled in classes and/or is registered for research, thesis, or dissertation requirements.
- "Cost of Attendance" means the aggregate cost to a Student to enrol in a degree/post-graduate/research programme, including tuition, the cost of books, fees, and other related educational expenses, as well as the cost of on- or off-campus room and board.

- "University" means Jain Vishva Bharti Institute and its constituent college; the Acharya Kalu Kanya Mahavidyalay or any other institution established by the JVBI over the period of time.

IV. POLICY

1. Scholarships

All Scholarships over which the University has discretion would be reviewed in advance of being offered to a Student by the concerned Department in order to ensure that they comply with applicable regulations.

There would be the following categories of scholarships:

- A. Institutional Scholarships : These scholarships would be disbursed from the financial resources of the University and the Vice Chancellor shall decide the modus operandi of granting such scholarships.
- B. Need-based Scholarships – These scholarships would be granted by any organization outside the administrative and financial control of the JVBI and would be disbursed to the needy students as per mandate of the aiding agency.
- C. Full Free-ships: Such facility shall be extended to (i) special categories of the students; viz. samanies/samans/sadhvies/sadhus/ascetics etc. (ii) students seeking admission in the non-conventional academic programmes, which fall under the core areas of the University. Such financial benefits would be provided out of the funds of the University.

2. Stipends

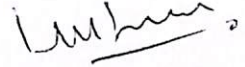

Stipends would be administered pursuant to policies and procedures established by the University. Stipends would be paid to Students through the Finance Department after seeking an approval from the competent authority. Appropriate reporting of the Stipend shall be made by the University in compliance with applicable taxing authority guidelines.

V. Process of Award :

The students would be required to apply to their respective Departments and all applications would be placed before a committee, constituted by the Vice Chancellor. The recommendations would be placed before the Vice Chancellor, who will pass an appropriate order.

V. Violation of the Policy

Violation of this policy and procedure or failure to timely cooperate in complying with its provisions may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.
