		Outline of the Syllabus	Our institution had some major goals to provide students higher education in English literature. English literature is important in many different ways. Few of them are as follows-First, English literature tells students about the history of the English speaking world. In other words, through this literature, they are able to learn about themselves and their history. Second, English literature also teaches students many lessons that have universal themes, such as love, war, desire, justice and many more. When they read these topics, they become much more sophisticated in their thinking and their view of the world expands. These make them better citizens. It emphasizes English communication skill also. The curriculum involves- British Poetry, British Drama, British Novel, Aspects of Language, Literature for Human Values, Literary Criticism and Theory, American Literature, Indian English Literature, New Literature in English, English Studies in India.TotalMarks 1000	Curriculum and Pedagogy:- Yes	Percentage of SLM developed by In- House Faculty	100
